The Net Asset Value (NAV) of the Units will be calculated and updated on every business day and for such other days as may be required for the purpose for transaction of Units on AMFI's website www.amfiindia.com by 11.00 p.m. on same business day. The NAV shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula, or such other formula as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time:

$$\text{NAV} = \frac{\text{Market or Fair Value of the Investment Strategy's Investments+ Receivables+ Accrued Income+ Other Assets- Accrued Expenses- Payables- Other Liabilities}}{\text{Number of Units Outstandings}}$$

The NAV of the Investment strategy will be calculated and declared upto Four decimal places & the fourth decimal will be rounded off higher to the next digit if the fifth decimal is or more than 5 i.e., if the NAV is Rs. 10.45347 it will be rounded off to Rs. 10.4535.

I. INTRODUCTION

A. DEFINITIONS/INTERPRETATION

For detailed description please refer -

<https://www.edelweissmf.com/altivaSIF/docs/Definition.pdf>

B. RISK FACTORS

- Investment Strategy specific risk factors

a) Risks associated with investing in Equity and Equity related Securities

- The investment strategy may invest in instruments where the volume of transactions may fluctuate significantly depending on the market sentiment. There is a risk that investments made by the Investment strategy may become less liquid in response to market developments or adverse investor perceptions. In extreme market situations, there may be no willing buyer and the investments cannot be readily sold at the desired time or price, and the Investment strategy may have to accept a lower price when selling the investments or may not be able to sell the investments at all. An inability to sell a portfolio position can adversely affect the investment strategy's value or prevent the strategy from being able to take advantage of other investment opportunities.
- The value of the investments may be affected by factors affecting the Securities markets such as price and volume volatility in the capital markets, interest rates, currency exchange rates, changes in law/policies of the government, taxation laws and political, economic or other developments which may have an adverse bearing on individual Securities, a specific sector or all sectors. Consequently, the NAV of the Units may be affected.
- Equity Securities and equity-related Securities are volatile and prone to price fluctuations on a daily basis. The liquidity of investments made by the investment strategy may be restricted by trading volumes and settlement periods. This may impact the ability of the Unit Holders to redeem their Units. In view of this, the Trustee has the right, in its sole discretion, to limit Redemptions (including suspending Redemption) in certain circumstances. The inability of the investment strategy to make intended Securities purchases, due to settlement problems, could cause the investment strategy to miss certain investment opportunities. Similarly, the inability to sell Securities held in the portfolio could result, at times, in potential losses to the investment strategy, should there be a subsequent decline in the value of Securities held in the investment strategy.
- Investments in equity and equity related Securities involve a degree of risk and investors should not invest in the investment strategy unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their investment.
- The liquidity and valuation of the investments due to its holdings of unlisted Securities may be affected if they have to be sold prior to the target date for divestment.
- Securities which are not quoted on stock exchanges are inherently illiquid in nature and carry a larger liquidity risk in comparison with Securities that are listed on the stock exchanges or offer other exit options to the investors, including put options. The investment strategy may choose to invest the assets of the Investment strategy in unlisted Securities that offer attractive yields within the regulatory limit. This may however increase the risks of the investment strategy.

b) Risks associated with investing in Debt and Money Market Instruments

- Interest rate Risk: Price of a fixed income instrument generally falls when the interest rates move up and vice-versa. The extent of fall or rise in the prices depends upon the coupon and maturity of the security. It also depends upon the yield level at which the security is being traded. The NAV of the Investment strategy is expected to increase from a fall in interest rates while it would be adversely affected by an increase in the level of interest rates.
- Credit risk or default Risk: Credit risk is the risk that the issuer of a debenture/ bond or a money market instrument may default on interest and/or principal payment obligations. Even when there is no default, the price of a security may change with expected changes in the credit rating of the issuer. It is to be noted here that Government Security is a sovereign security and is the safest. Corporate bonds carry a higher amount of credit risk than Government Securities. Within corporate bonds also there are different levels of safety, and a bond rated higher by a particular rating agency is safer than a bond rated lower by the same rating agency.

- Liquidity & Settlement Risk: The liquidity of fixed income security may change, depending on market conditions, leading to changes in the liquidity premium attached to the price of such securities. At the time of selling the security, the security can become illiquid, leading to loss in value of the portfolio. Different segments of the financial markets have different settlement cycle/periods, and such settlement cycle/periods may be impacted by unforeseen circumstances, leading to Settlement Risk. This can adversely affect the ability of the Fund to swiftly execute trading strategies which can lead to adverse movements in NAV.
- Reinvestment Risk: Interest rates may vary from time to time. The rate at which intermediate cash flows are reinvested may differ from the original interest rates on the security, which can affect the total earnings from the security.
- Performance Risk: Performance of the Investment strategy may be impacted with changes in factors which affect the capital market, and particularly the debt market.
- Prepayment Risk: The Investment strategy may receive payment of monthly cashflows earlier than scheduled, which may result in reinvestment risk.
- Market Risk: Lower rated or unrated securities are more likely to react to developments affecting the market as they tend to be more sensitive to changes in economic conditions than higher rated securities.

c) Risk factors associated with Derivatives

Derivative products are leveraged instruments and can provide disproportionate gains as well as disproportionate losses to the investor. Execution of such strategies depends upon the ability of the Fund Manager to identify such opportunities. Identification and execution of the strategies to be pursued by the fund manager involve uncertainty and decision of fund manager may not always be profitable. No assurance can be given that the fund manager will be able to identify or execute such strategies.

The risks associated with the use of derivatives are different from or possibly greater than, the risks associated with investing directly in securities and other traditional investments.

Trading in derivatives has the following risks:

- An exposure to derivatives in excess of the hedging requirements can lead to losses.
- An exposure to derivatives, when used for hedging purpose, can also limit the profits from a genuine investment transaction.
- Derivatives carry the risk of adverse changes in the market price.
- Illiquidity Risk i.e. risk that a derivative trade may not be executed or reversed quickly enough at a fair price, due to lack of liquidity in the market.

The Investment strategy may use derivatives instruments like equity futures & options, or other derivative instruments as permitted under the Regulations and Guidelines. Usage of derivatives will expose the Investment strategy to liquidity risk, open position risk, and opportunities risk etc. Such risks include the risk of mispricing or improper valuation and the inability of derivatives to correlate perfectly with underlying assets, rates and indices. In case of the derivative strategies, it may not be possible to square off the cash position against the corresponding derivative position at the exact closing price available in the Value Weighted Average Period. Debt derivatives instruments like interest rate swaps, forward rate agreements or other derivative instruments also involve certain risks.

- d) Risk associated with unhedged derivative positions: The investment strategy can invest in unhedged derivative positions. The following are the risk associated with the same:

1. Market Risk

Unhedged derivatives are highly sensitive to market fluctuations. A sudden adverse movement in the underlying asset's price can lead to substantial losses. For instance, in India's exchange-traded rupee options market, brokers demanding clients provide proof of underlying exposure for their derivative contracts or unwind their positions, leading to significant turmoil and forced position unwinding

2. Leverage Risk

Derivatives often involve leverage, allowing investors to control a large position with a relatively small amount of capital. While this can amplify gains, it also magnifies losses if the market moves unfavorably. In the Indian equity derivatives market, traders making unhedged bets were required to pay higher margins, with margin calls shooting up to 20–25%, highlighting the amplified risks of unhedged positions.

3. Liquidity Risk

Unhedged positions may be harder to exit, especially in illiquid markets. In times of market stress, the inability to sell or offset positions at desired prices can lead to significant losses. This was evident in the forced unwinding of positions in India's rupee options market, where drying liquidity and wider bid-ask spreads caused market anomalies

4. Counterparty Risk

In over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives, there's a risk that the counterparty may default on its obligations. This can lead to financial losses if the counterparty fails to meet its contractual commitments.

5. Operational Risk

Errors in trade execution, settlement, or system failures can lead to unintended exposures and losses. Inadequate risk management practices or technological failures can exacerbate these risks.

e) Risk associated with derivative strategies:

- Cash Future Arbitrage: The risk of not being able to execute both legs of the arbitrage simultaneously and at desired prices. If the basis moves unfavourably, expected arbitrage profits may erode or even turn into a loss. Futures positions require margin, and sudden adverse moves can trigger margin calls. Leverage amplifies both gains and losses; a sharp market movement could result in forced liquidation.
- Covered call Option: Writing call options are highly specialized activities and entail higher than ordinary investment risks. In such investment strategy, the profits from call option writing is capped at the option premium, however the downside depends upon the increase in value of the underlying equity shares. This downside risk is reduced by writing covered call options.
- i. The Investment Strategy may write covered call option only in case it has adequate number of underlying equity shares as per regulatory requirement. This would lead to setting aside a portion of investment in underlying equity shares. If covered call options are sold to the maximum extent allowed by regulatory authority, the scheme may not be able to sell the underlying equity shares immediately if the view changes to sell and exit the stock. The covered call options need to be unwound before the stock positions can be liquidated. This may lead to a loss of opportunity, or can cause exit issues if the strike price at which the call option contracts have been written become illiquid. Hence, the scheme may not be able to sell the underlying equity shares, which can lead to temporary illiquidity of the underlying equity shares and result in loss of opportunity.
- ii. The writing of covered call option would lead to loss of opportunity due to appreciation in value of the underlying equity shares. Hence, when the appreciation in equity share price is more than the option premium received the Investment Strategy would be at a loss.
- iii. The total gross exposure related to option premium paid and received must not exceed the regulatory limits of the net assets of the scheme. This may restrict the ability of Investment Strategy to buy any options.
- Protective pull strategy: The put option requires an upfront premium, which adds to the cost of your investment. If the stock price rises or stays flat, the put may expire worthless, making the premium a sunk cost. The value of the put option erodes over time, especially if the stock doesn't move significantly. Each day that passes without a significant move lowers the value of the put.

- Pair trading using futures:

- i. The core assumption in pair trading is that the price spread between the two instruments will converge back to its historical mean. If the spread widens instead of narrowing, the trade incurs losses. Divergence can be due to structural changes, earnings surprises, or macroeconomic factors.
- ii. The two assets are expected to move in a correlated manner, but that relationship can break down. Correlation is not static — it can shift due to market regime changes. A breakdown results in the pair not behaving as expected, increasing directional exposure.

- Index Future for hedging or beta adjustment:

- i. The risk of not being able to execute both legs of the arbitrage simultaneously and at desired prices. If the basis moves unfavourably, expected arbitrage profits may erode or even turn into a loss. The hedge may not be perfect if the portfolio doesn't track the index exactly. A mismatch in returns can lead to under-hedging or over-hedging.
- ii. Beta measures the portfolio's sensitivity to the market (index). Incorrect beta estimates lead to improper hedge ratios. Using a wrong beta can lead to an over-hedged (taking too much protection) or under-hedged position. It reduces hedge effectiveness or can even create losses.

- Straddle / Strangle Strategy:

- i. Options lose value over time if the underlying does not move significantly. Both straddles and strangles involve buying two options. If no big price movement occurs, both options lose value rapidly. The closer to expiry, the faster the decay.
- ii. Profitability depends on not just magnitude of move, but timing. If the stock moves just before expiry, it may be too late to recover time decay losses.

j) Risks Associated with exposure in Tri-party Repo

Risk of exposure in the Tri-party Repo settlement Segment provided by CCIL emanates mainly on two counts –

- Risk of failure by a lender to meet its obligations to make funds available or by a borrower to accept funds by providing adequate security at the settlement of the original trade of lending and borrowing under Triparty Repo transaction.
- Risk of default by a borrower in repayment.

k) Risks Associated with Stock Lending Risks associated With Stock Lending

The risks in lending portfolio securities, as with other extensions of credit, consist of the failure of another party, in this case the approved intermediary, to comply with the terms of agreement entered between the lender of securities and the approved intermediary. Such failure to comply can result in the possible loss of rights in the collateral put up by the borrower of the securities, the inability of the approved intermediary to return the securities deposited by the lender and the possible loss of any corporate benefits accruing to the lender from the securities deposited with the approved intermediary. It may be noted that this activity would have the inherent probability of collateral value drastically falling in times of strong downward market trends, rendering the value of collateral inadequate until such time as that diminution in value is replenished by additional security. It is also possible that the borrowing party and/or the approved intermediary may suddenly suffer severe business setbacks and become unable to honor its commitments. This, along with a simultaneous fall in value of collateral would render potential loss to the Investment strategy. Besides, there can be temporary illiquidity of the securities that are lent out and the Investment strategy will not be able to sell such lent-out securities until they are returned. There is also a possibility of opportunity loss.

l) Risk factors associated with Repo transactions in Corporate Debt:

i) Lending transactions:

The Investment strategy may be exposed to counterparty risk in case of repo lending transactions in the event of the counterparty failing to honor the repurchase agreement. However, in repo lending transactions, the collateral may be sold, and a loss is realized only if the sale price is less than the repo amount. The risk may be further mitigated through over-collateralization (the value of the collateral being more than the repo amount). Further, the liquidation of underlying securities in case of counterparty default would depend on liquidity of the securities and market conditions at that time. It is endeavored to mitigate the risk by following an appropriate counterparty selection process, which includes their credit profile evaluation and over-collateralization to cushion the impact of market risk on sale of underlying security.

ii) Borrowing transactions:

In the event of the Investment strategy being unable to pay back the money to the counterparty as contracted, the counter party may dispose of the assets (as they have sufficient margin). This risk is normally mitigated by better cash flow planning to take care of such repayments. Further, there is also a Credit Risk that the Counterparty may fail to return the security or Interest received on due date. It is endeavored to mitigate the risk by following an appropriate counterparty selection process, which includes their credit profile evaluation

m) Risks associated with writing covered call options for equity shares

- Writing call options are highly specialized activities and entail higher than ordinary investment risks. In such an investment strategy, the profits from call option writing are capped at the option premium, however the downside depends upon the increase in value of the underlying equity shares. This downside risk is reduced by writing covered call options.
- The Investment strategy may write covered call options only in case it has an adequate number of underlying equity shares as per regulatory requirement. This would lead to setting aside a portion of investment in underlying equity shares. If the covered call options are sold to the maximum extent allowed by regulatory authority, the investment strategy may not be able to sell the underlying equity shares immediately if the view changes to sell and exit the stock. The covered call options need to be unwound before the stock positions can be liquidated. This may lead to a loss of opportunity or can cause exit issues if the strike price at which the call option contracts have been written become illiquid. Hence, the investment strategy may not be able to sell the underlying equity shares, which can lead to temporary illiquidity of the underlying equity shares and result in loss of opportunity.
- The writing of the covered call option would lead to loss of opportunity due to appreciation in value of the underlying equity shares. Hence, when the appreciation in equity share price is higher than the option premium received the investment strategy will be at a loss.
- The total gross exposure related to option premium paid and received must not exceed the regulatory limits of the net assets of the Investment strategy. This may restrict the ability of Investment strategy to buy any options.

n) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in Foreign Securities

Investments in International (overseas) securities including Exchange Traded Funds involves increased risk and volatility, not typically associated with domestic investing,

Some of the risks associated are:

- Changes in currency exchange rates
- Foreign government regulations
- Differences in auditing and accounting standards
- Political and economic instability
- Liquidity and volatile prices
- Economic deterioration, and changes in bi-lateral relationships.

The investment in overseas securities and overseas ETFs is subject to compliance with the industry-wide limit as stipulated by RBI/SEBI from time to time. The Investment strategy may not be able to make investment in overseas securities and overseas ETFs in case of breach of such industry-wide overseas limits. In such a situation, the performance of the Investment strategy could be affected.

o) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in REITs and InvITs

- Market Risk: REITs and InvITs are volatile and prone to price fluctuations on a daily basis owing to market movements. Investors may note that Fund Manager's investment decisions may not always be profitable, as actual market movements may be at variance with the anticipated trends. The NAV of the Investment strategy is vulnerable to movements in the prices of securities invested by the Investment strategy, due to various market related factors like changes in the general market conditions, factors and forces affecting capital market, level of interest rates, trading volumes, settlement periods and transfer procedures.
- Liquidity Risk: As the liquidity of the investments made by the Investment strategy(s) could, at times, be restricted by trading volumes and settlement periods, the time taken by the SIF for liquidating the investments in the Investment strategy may be high in the event of immediate redemption requirement. Investment in such securities may lead to an increase in the fund portfolio risk.
- Reinvestment Risk: Investments in REITs & InvITs may carry reinvestment risk as there could be repatriation of funds by the Trusts in form of buyback of units or dividend pay-outs, etc. Consequently, the proceeds may get invested in assets providing lower returns.

The above are some of the common risks associated with investments in REITs & InvITs. There can be no assurance that a fund's investment objectives will be achieved, or that there will be no loss of capital. Investment results may vary substantially on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis.

p) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in Securitised Debt

Investing in securitized debt carries several risks due to the nature of these instruments. These risks include:

- Credit Risk: The underlying assets in securitized debt may suffer from defaults, leading to a loss of principal or interest. The risk is particularly significant if the pool of underlying loans, such as mortgages or consumer loans, experiences high levels of non-payment.
- Liquidity Risk: Securitised debt instruments may not be as liquid as other debt securities. The market for these securities can be limited, especially during times of market stress, making it harder to buy or sell them at favorable prices.
- Prepayment Risk: Many securitized debt instruments are subject to prepayment risk, meaning that the underlying borrowers may repay their loans earlier than expected. This can result in reinvestment risk, where the returns from the early repayments may be lower than anticipated.
- Market Risk: Securitised debt securities are affected by changes in market conditions, such as interest rates or economic factors, which can impact their value and performance.
- Structural Risk: Securitised debt involves pooling various assets into a single security, and different tranches (or layers) of the security may carry different risk profiles. Investors in lower-rated tranches may be exposed to higher risk in the event of defaults within the underlying assets.
- Legal and Regulatory Risk: Changes in laws or regulations, especially related to the underlying assets (such as mortgages), can impact the performance of securitized debt. Inadequate legal frameworks or enforcement can also affect the recovery in case of defaults.

q) Risks associated with investments in units of mutual funds

- Investment in the units of the Underlying Funds involves investment risks such as trading volumes, settlement risk, liquidity risk, default risk including the possible loss of principal.
- As the price / value / interest rates of the securities in which the Underlying Funds invest fluctuates, the value of the Fund's investment in the Underlying Funds may go up or down.
- The Fund's investment in the Underlying Funds will be subject to market and other risks and there can be no guarantee against loss resulting from an investment in the Underlying Funds nor can there be any assurance that the Underlying Funds' objectives will be achieved.
- The past performance of the Sponsor / AMC / Mutual Fund does not guarantee future performance of the Underlying Funds.
- The name of the Underlying Funds does not in any manner indicate either the quality of the Underlying Funds or its future prospects and returns.
- The sponsor of the Underlying Funds is not responsible or liable for any loss resulting from the operation of the Underlying Funds beyond the initial contribution of INR 1,00,000 (One Lakh - Rupees) made by it towards setting up the Mutual Fund.
- The Underlying Funds is not a guaranteed or assured return Investment strategy.

r) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in Debt Instruments with SO / CE

- Credit Risk: The effectiveness of a credit enhancement (e.g., guarantee, letter of credit, insurance) depends on the creditworthiness of the enhancing entity. If the guarantor or insurer defaults, the instrument may lose its enhanced credit quality.
- Structural Complexity Risk: Structural enhancements (e.g., senior/subordinated tranching, overcollateralization, reserve accounts) make the instrument's cash flows more complex. Misunderstanding the structure can lead to incorrect risk assessment. Complexity also reduces transparency.
- Liquidity Risk: Enhanced instruments are often structured and less liquid than traditional debt. Difficulty in selling the instrument in the secondary market, especially in stressed conditions.

s) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in Credit Default Swaps (CDS)

- Model Risk: Valuing CDS requires complex models, especially for spread curves, hazard rates, and correlation in CDS indices.
- Liquidity Risk: CDS markets can become illiquid, especially in times of market stress. Wide bid-ask spreads and difficulty exiting positions can lead to unexpected losses or mark-to-market issues.
- Settlement Risk: Following a credit event, settlement (especially physical settlement) can be operationally complex.

- t) Risk Factors Associated with Investments in Perpetual Debt Instrument (PDI). Perpetual Debt instruments are issued by Banks, non-banking financial institutions (NBFCs) and corporates to improve their capital profile. Some of the PDIs issued by Banks which are governed by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines for Basel III Capital Regulations are referred to as Additional Tier I (AT1 bonds). While there are no regulatory guidelines for issuance of PDIs by corporate bodies, NBFCs issue these bonds as per guidelines issued by RBI. The instruments are treated as perpetual in nature as there is no fixed maturity date. The key risks associated with these instruments are highlighted below:

- Risk on coupon servicing: o Banks: As per the terms of the instruments, Banks may have discretion at all times to cancel distributions/payment of coupons o NBFCs: While NBFCs may have discretion at all times to cancel payment of coupon, coupon may also be deferred (instead of being cancelled), in case paying the coupon leads to breach of capital ratios. o Corporates: Corporates usually have discretion to defer the payment of coupon. However, the coupon is usually cumulative and any deferred coupon shall accrue interest at the original coupon rate of the PDI

Risk of write-down or conversion into equity o Banks: As per the regulatory requirements, Banks have to maintain a minimum Common Equity Tier-1 (CET-1) ratio of Risk Weighted Assets (RWAs), failing which the AT-1 bonds can get written down. Further, AT-1 Bonds are liable to be written down or converted to common equity, at the discretion of RBI, in the event of Point of Non Viability Trigger (PONV). PONV is a point, determined by RBI, when a bank is deemed to have become non-viable unless there is a write off/ conversion to equity of AT-1 Bonds or a public sector capital injection happens. The write off/conversion has to occur prior to public sector injection of capital. This risk is not applicable in case of NBFCs and Corporates.

- Risk of instrument not being called by the Issuer o Banks: The issuing banks have an option to call back the instrument after minimum period as per the regulatory requirement from the date of issuance and specified period thereafter, subject to meeting the RBI guidelines. However, if the bank does not exercise the call on first call date, the Scheme may have to hold the instruments for a period beyond the first call exercise date. o NBFCs: The NBFC issuer has an option to call back the instrument after minimum period as per the regulatory requirement from date of issuance and specified period thereafter, subject to meeting the RBI guidelines. However, if the NBFC does not exercise the call option the Scheme may have to hold the instruments for a period beyond the first call exercise date. o Corporates: There is no minimum period for call date. However, if the corporate does not exercise the call option, the Scheme may have to hold the instruments for a period beyond the call exercise date.

C. RISK MITIGATION STRATEGIES

The Investment strategy has designed a detailed process to identify, measure, monitor and manage the portfolio risk. The aim is not to eliminate the risk completely but to have a structured mechanism towards risk management thereby maximizing potential opportunities and minimize the adverse effects of risk. Few of the key risks identified are:

Risk associated with Equity and Equity-related instruments:

Risk & Description specific to the Investment strategy	Risk mitigants / Management Strategy
Market Risk The value of the Investment strategy's investments, may be affected generally by factors affecting securities markets, such as price and volume, volatility in the capital markets, interest rates, currency exchange rates, changes in policies of the Government, taxation laws or any other appropriate authority policies and other political and economic developments which may have an adverse bearing on individual securities, a specific sector or all sectors including equity and debt markets.	Market risk is a risk which is inherent to an equity Investment strategy. Understand the working of the markets and respond effectively to market movements. The Investment strategy may use derivatives to limit this risk.
Concentration risk Risk arising due to over exposure in few securities	Investing across the spectrum of issuers and keeping flexibility to invest across tenor
Derivatives Risk Various inherent risks arising because of investing in derivatives.	Continuous monitoring of the derivatives positions and strict adherence to the regulations and internal norms
Liquidity risk Risk arising due to inefficient Asset Liability Management, resulting in high impact costs	Control portfolio liquidity at portfolio construction stage. Having optimum mix of cash & cash equivalents along with the money market instruments in the portfolio as defined in asset allocations. The fund will try to maintain a proper asset-liability match to ensure redemption payments are made on time and not affected by illiquidity of the underlying stocks.

Risk associated with debt and money market instruments:

Risk Category	Mitigation Strategy
Volatility Risk	Managed through diversification, reducing exposure to market fluctuations caused by factors like liquidity flows, economic policies, etc
Liquidity Risk	Government bonds, money market instruments and shorter maturity instruments are generally easier to sell vs. corporate bonds and other instruments. Liquidity risk will be managed by creating portfolios that are diversified across maturities, ratings, types of securities, etc
Credit Risk	Mitigated by investing in debt securities of companies with strong reputations, solid fundamentals, and financial stability. A comprehensive and in-depth credit evaluation of each issuer will be undertaken. The Investment strategy will endeavour to maintain adequate diversification across issuers / sectors / ratings in line with Investment strategy objectives, regulations and investment strategy
Interest rate Risk	Change in interest rate typically has a higher impact on high duration securities. As per the nature of the fund, investments will be in low duration securities. The AMC shall strive to actively manage the duration of the respective funds based on the prevailing market conditions / outlook of interest rates, keeping in mind the Investment strategy objectives, investment strategy and applicable regulations
Concentration Risk	The AMC will attempt to mitigate this risk by maintaining adequate diversification across issuers/ sectors / instrument type in line with the Investment strategy objectives, investment strategy and applicable regulations. This will also be managed by keeping prudent internal limits
Debt Derivatives Risk	Interest Rate Swaps will be done with approved counter parties under pre approved ISDA agreements. Mark to Market of swaps, netting off of cash flow and default provision clauses will be provided as per standard practice on a reciprocal basis. Interest Rate Swaps and other derivative instruments will be used as per local (RBI and SEBI) regulatory Guidelines

The above-mentioned securities could be listed, secured, unsecured, rated, unrated and may be acquired through Primary, secondary market offerings, private placements, rights offer etc. Further, investments in debentures, bonds and other fixed income securities will usually be in instruments, which have been assigned investment grade ratings by an approved rating agency.

3. Investments in Derivative Instruments:

The Investment strategy may invest in Derivative Instruments to the extent permitted under Clause 7.5, 7.6 & 12.25 of SEBI Master Circular dated June 27, 2024 and SEBI Circular no SEBI/HO/IMD/IMD-PoD-1/P/CIR/2025/26 dated February 27, 2025 on 'Trading by Mutual Funds on Exchange Traded Derivatives' as amended from time to time. Derivative products are specialized instruments that require investment techniques and risk analysis different from those associated with stocks and bonds. The use of derivatives requires an understanding not only of the underlying instrument but also of the derivative instrument itself. The Investment strategy may use derivative instruments such as index futures and options, stock futures and options contracts, warrants, convertible securities, swap or forward rate agreements or any other derivative instruments that are permissible or may be permissible in future under applicable regulations and such investments shall be in accordance with the investment objective of the Investment strategy.

Index futures/options are meant to be an efficient way of buying/selling an index compared to buying/selling a portfolio of physical shares representing an index for ease of execution and settlement. Index futures/options can be an efficient way of achieving the Investment strategy's investment objective. Notwithstanding the pricing, they can help in reducing the Tracking Error in the Investment strategy. Index futures/options may avoid the need for trading in individual components of the index, which may not be possible at times, keeping in mind the circuit filter system and the liquidity in some of the individual stocks. Index futures/options can also be helpful in reducing the transaction costs and the processing costs on account of ease of execution of one trade compared to several trades of shares comprising the Underlying Index and will be easy to settle compared to physical portfolio of shares representing the Underlying Index. In case of investments in index futures/options, the risk/reward would be the same as investments in portfolio of shares representing an index. However, there may be a cost attached to buying an index future/option. Further, there could be an element of settlement risk, which could be different from the risk in settling physical shares. This settlement risk is likely to be minimized if the exchange acts as the clearing corporation and the counter party, as is the practice in the developed markets. The Investment strategy will not maintain any leveraged or trading positions.

- Investments in units of Infrastructure Investment Trusts (InvITs) and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs):

In accordance with Regulation 49A of SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulation, 1996 amended thereto from time to time, the Investment strategy may invest in units of Infrastructure Investment Trusts (InvITs) and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) within the stipulated investment limits.

- Investments in the Schemes of Mutual Fund:

The Investment strategy may invest in units of the schemes managed by the AMC, provided it is in conformity with the investment objectives of the Investment strategy and in terms of the prevailing SEBI Regulations. As per SEBI Regulations, no Investment Management fees will be charged for such investments and the aggregate inter Investment strategy investment made by all Investment strategies in the schemes of the Mutual Fund shall not exceed 5% of the Net Asset Value of the Mutual Fund / SIF.

4. In accordance with SEBI's Circulars SEBI/IMD/CIR No. 7/104753/07 dated 26 September 2007, SEBI/IMD/CIR No. 2/1222577/08 dated 8 April 2008, SEBI/HO/IMD/DF3/CIR/P/2020/225 dated November 5, 2020 and SEBI/HO/IMD/IMD-II/DOF3/P/CIR/2021/571 dated June 3, 2021 the following conditions shall apply to the Investment strategy's participation in the overseas investments. Please note that the investment restrictions applicable to the Investment strategy's participation in overseas investments will be as prescribed or varied by SEBI or by the Trustee (subject to SEBI requirements) from time to time. The SEBI Regulations pertaining to investment in ADRs / GDRs / foreign Securities and overseas ETFs by mutual funds / SIFs have now been decided as follows:
- The aggregate ceiling for overseas investments is USD 7 billion as per the above SEBI circulars. Within the overall limit of USD 7 billion, mutual funds can make overseas investments subject to a maximum of USD 1 billion per mutual fund. The overall ceiling for investment in overseas ETFs that invest in securities is US$ 1 billion subject to a maximum of US$ 300 million per mutual fund. In accordance with SEBI circular no. SEBI/IMD/CIR No.7 /104753/07 dated 26 September 2007, permissible overseas investments are:

 - Repurchase agreements in the form of investment, where the counterparty is rated not below investment grade; repurchase agreements should not, however, involve any borrowing of funds by mutual funds.
 - Government Securities where the countries are rated not below investment grade.
 - Short term deposits with banks overseas where the issuer is rated not below investment grade.
 - Units / Securities issued by overseas mutual funds or unit trusts registered with overseas regulators and investing in (a) aforesaid Securities, (b) Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) listed in recognized stock exchanges overseas or (c) unlisted overseas Securities (not exceeding 10% of their net assets). The exposure of the Underlying Fund in India will not be gained through participatory notes. However, participatory notes which have non-Indian securities as underlying are permitted.

Position of Bond Markets In India

India's bond market has witnessed a rapid growth in the last five years. The aggregate Face Value of bonds was Rs 241 trillion ($2.81 trillion) as on Dec 2024 according to data from RBI, SEBI.

India's bond market comprises mainly of sovereign bonds, corporate bonds, and money market assets. Sovereign bonds comprised 74%; corporate bonds were 19% while money market assets comprised 7% of the aggregate Face Value of bonds as of Dec 2024.

Sovereign bonds are issued by the Government of India & Indian States to finance their budget deficits. The budget deficit is generally announced in the Union Budget for the next financial year. It is widely followed by the market participants for their analysis on the government finances. It forms the basis for India's monetary policy and demand-supply dynamic in the secondary market.

The Government of India typically funds a significant portion of its budget deficit by auctioning government bonds on weekly basis. The auction calendar is made public in advance. For last few years, the government has made conscious efforts to auction bonds with residual maturity greater than ten years to lengthen its maturity profile. The government also auctions Treasury Bills on weekly basis to finance their short-term cash flow mismatches. The government's Treasury Bill auction calendar is also available for market participants in advance. The government auctions 91-day, 182-day, 364-day treasury bills on every Wednesday. Indian states also borrow in the bond market by auctioning State Development Loans (SDL) on every Tuesdays. These bonds are mostly purchased by Banks, Insurance companies as well as other market participants due to their sovereign nature, superior secondary market liquidity and statutory holding requirements by the regulators.

Indian corporate entities as well as Public Financial Institutions typically borrow wholesale money from the debt capital market. Primary supply of corporate bonds has been steadily increasing in the last three years in proportion to the increase in the demand for quality assets from mutual funds, insurance companies, foreign portfolio investors and pension funds.

As on Dec 2024, size of the Indian government bond market is around Rs 114 trillion, which is distributed amongst 118 unique issues. As compared to that India's corporate bond market is more fragmented. The total corporate bond market size is around Rs 46 trillion, which is distributed amongst ~6,558 unique issuers. SDL market lies in between, which is Rs 64 trillion in size and has 4,954 unique issues.

Investment Restrictions pertaining to Debt Derivatives:

As part of the Fund Management process, the Trustee may permit the use of derivative instruments such as swap agreements, Forward Rate Agreement (FRA) or any other derivative instruments that are permissible or may be permissible in future under applicable regulations and such investments shall be in accordance with the investment objectives of the Investment strategys.

On the fixed income side, an interest rate swap agreement from fixed rate to floating rate is an example of how derivatives can be an effective hedge for the portfolio in a rising interest rate environment.

Derivatives can be either exchange traded or can be over the counter (OTC). Exchange traded derivatives are listed and traded on Stock Exchanges whereas OTC derivative transactions are generally structured between two counterparties.

Derivatives may be high risk - high return instruments, upon leveraging. As they are highly leveraged, a small price movement in the underlying security could have a large impact on their value and may also result in a loss.

Position Limits:

The Investment strategy may enter into derivatives in line with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI from time to time. The exposure limit per scrip/instrument shall be to the extent permitted by the SEBI Regulation for the time being in force. These limits will be reviewed by the AMC from time to time.

Currently, the position limits for Mutual Funds /SIFs, as permitted by the SEBI Regulations, are as under:

The cumulative gross exposure through equity, debt and derivative positions (including fixed income derivatives), repo transactions and credit default swaps in corporate debt securities, Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs), Infrastructure Investment Trusts (InvITs), other permitted securities/assets and such other securities/assets as may be permitted by SEBI from time to time) should not exceed 100% of the net assets of the Investment strategy. Exposure due to hedging positions may not be included in the above mentioned limit subject to the following:

- Hedging positions are the derivative positions that reduce possible losses on an existing position in securities and till the existing position remains.
- Hedging positions cannot be taken for existing derivative positions. Exposure due to such positions shall have to be added and treated under limits mentioned above.
- Any derivative instrument used to hedge has the same underlying security as the existing position being hedged.
- The quantity of underlying associated with the derivative position taken for hedging purposes does not exceed the quantity of the existing position against which hedge has been taken.
- Exposure due to derivative positions taken for hedging purposes in excess of the underlying position against which the hedging position has been taken, shall be treated under the limits mentioned above.

Cash or cash equivalents with residual maturity of less than 91 days may be treated as not creating any exposure. Pursuant to SEBI letter dated November 03, 2022, Cash or cash equivalents shall consist of following securities having residual maturity of less than 91 days:

- 1) Government Securities
- 2) T-Bills
- 3) Repo on Government Securities

Purpose of investment:

The Investment strategy shall fully cover its positions in the derivatives market by holding underlying securities/cash or cash equivalents/option and/or obligation for acquiring underlying assets to honour the obligations contracted in the derivatives market.

Separate records shall be maintained for holding the cash and cash equivalents/securities for this purpose.

The securities held shall be marked to market by the AMC to ensure full coverage of investments made in derivative products at all time.

Valuation:

The traded derivatives shall be valued at market price in conformity with the stipulations of sub clauses (i) to (v) of clause 1 of the Eighth Schedule to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996.

The valuation of untraded derivatives shall be done in accordance with the valuation method for untraded investments prescribed in sub clauses (i) and (ii) of clause 2 of the Eighth Schedule to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996.

Interest Rate Swaps (IRS):

The Indian markets have faced high volatility in debt and equity markets. An interest rate swap is a contractual agreement between two counterparties to exchange streams of interest amount on a national principal basis. In this, one party agrees to pay a fixed stream of interest amount against receiving a variable or floating stream of interest amount. The variable or floating part is determined on a periodical basis.

The Investment strategy may enter into Interest Rate Swaps (IRS) for hedging or unwinding of the previous hedge or unhedging purposes.

In case of participation in IRS is through over the counter transactions, the counter party has to be an entity recognized as a market maker by RBI and exposure to a single counterparty in such transactions should not exceed 10% of the net assets of the Investment strategy. However, if Investment strategy is transacting in IRS through an electronic trading platform offered by the Clearing Corporation of India Ltd. (CCIL) and CCIL is the central counterparty for such transactions guaranteeing settlement, the single counterparty limit of 10% shall not be applicable.

Purpose of Interest Rate Swaps: An interest rate swap is a contractual agreement between two counterparties to exchange streams of interest amount on a national principal basis. In this, one party agrees to pay a fixed stream of interest amount against receiving a variable or floating stream of interest amount. The variable or floating part is determined on a periodical basis.

The Investment strategy shall fully cover their positions in the derivatives market by holding underlying securities / cash or cash equivalents / option and / or obligation for acquiring underlying assets to honour the obligations contracted in the derivatives market.

Risks attached with the use of Interest Rate Swaps:

As and when the Investment strategys enter into Interest rate swaps agreement, there are risk factors and issues concerning the use of this derivative that the investors should understand. Interest rate swaps require the maintenance of adequate controls to monitor the transactions entered into, the ability to assess the risk that the derivative adds to counter-party risk to comply with the terms of the derivatives contract. Liquidity risk where the danger is that the derivative cannot be sold at prices that reflect the underlying assets, rates and indices, and price risk where the market price may move in adverse fashion.

Let us look at an example of an interest rate swap:

Bank A enters into an OIS trade with following particulars:

- Notional: INR 100 cr
- Tenor: 7 days
- Bank A pays a fixed rate @ 6.49% and receives daily compounded Overnight FBIL MIBOR
- Let us say FBIL MIBOR fixings are as follows
- Day 1: 6.51%, Day 2: 6.50%, Day 3: 6.48 %, Day 4: 6.52 %, Day 5 and 6 holidays, Day 7: 6.50%
- The interest on the principal amount of INR 100 cr on the floating leg gets compounded on a daily basis. In the case of a holiday, interest is computed on a simple interest basis Floating rate is calculated as:

$$r = \frac{365 * (1 + 0.0651/365) * (1 + 0.0650/365) * (1 + 0.0648/365) * (1 + 0.0652 * 3/365) * (1 + 0.0650/365)}{365}$$ which works out to be 6.5101%
- Total accrual on floating leg = INR 1,248,512.33
- Total accrual on fixed leg = 6.49 % * INR 1,000,000,000 * 7/365 = 1,244,657.53

- INR Net interest payable by floating rate payer to fixed rate payer = INR (1,248,512.33 – 1,244,657.53) = INR 3,854.79

Let us take example of short positions in bonds to minimize risk:

You have a mix of different investments in your portfolio:

- Equity (stocks) – 65%
- Debt (bonds) – 25% (3 year Duration)
- Cash – 10%
- Short position (betting against bonds) – 10% (6 year duration)

Without the Short Position

- The duration is 0.751.

That means:

→ If interest rates go up by 1%, your portfolio could lose about 0.75% in value

With the Short Position

- You add a short position (betting against upward movement in yields).

Now the duration drops to 0.151.

That means:

→ If interest rates go up by 1%, you only lose about 0.15%.

Conclusion - Without the short position, you're more exposed to interest rate changes.

Forward Rate Agreement (FRA)

A FRA is basically a forward starting IRS. It is an agreement between two parties to pay or receive the difference between an agreed fixed rate (the FRA rate) and the interest rate (reference rate) prevailing on a stipulated future date, based on a notional principal amount for an agreed period. The only cash flow is the difference between the FRA rate and the reference rate. As is the case with IRS, the notional amounts are not exchanged in FRAs.

Example: Let us assume that a Investment strategy has an investment of Rs.10 crore in an instrument that pays interest linked to Overnight MIBOR. Since the Overnight MIBOR would vary daily, the Investment strategy is running an interest rate risk on its investment and would stand to lose if rates go down. To hedge itself against this risk, the Investment strategy could do an IRS where it receives a fixed rate (assume 10%) for the next 5 days on the notional amount of Rs.10 crore and pay a floating rate (Overnight MIBOR). In doing this, the Investment strategy would effectively lock itself into a fixed rate of 10% for the next five days. The steps would be:

The Investment strategy enters into an IRS on Rs.10 crore from September 02, 2024 to September 06 2024. It receives a fixed rate of interest at 10% and the counter party receives the floating rate (Overnight MIBOR). The Investment strategy and the counter party exchange a contract of having entered into this IRS.

1. On a daily basis, the Overnight MIBOR will be tracked by the counterparties to determine the floating rate payable by the Investment strategy.
2. On September 06, 2024, the counterparties will calculate the following:
3. The Investment strategy will receive interest on Rs.10 crore at 10% p.a. for 5 days i.e. Rs.1,36,986/-
4. The Investment strategy will pay the compounded Overnight MIBOR for 5 days by converting its floating rate asset into a fixed rate through the IRS.
5. If the total interest on the compounded Overnight MIBOR rate is lower than Rs. 1,36,986/-, the Investment strategy will receive the difference from the counterparty and vice-versa. In case the interest on compounded Overnight MIBOR is higher, the Investment strategy would make a lower return than what it would have made had it not undertaken IRS.

Risks attached with the use of Forward Rate Agreement:

As and when the Investment strategys enter into FRA agreement, there are risk factors and issues concerning the use of this derivative that the investors should understand. FRA requires the maintenance of adequate controls to monitor the transactions entered into, the ability to assess the risk that the derivative adds to the portfolio and the ability to forecast failure of another party (usually referred to as the “counter-party”) to comply with the terms of the derivatives contract. Other risks in using derivatives include the risk of mis-pricing or improper valuation of derivatives, the credit risk where the danger is that of a counter-party failing to honour its commitment, liquidity risk where the danger is that the derivative cannot be sold at prices that reflect the underlying assets, rates and indices, and price risk where the market price may move in adverse fashion.

As is clear from the above examples, engaging in derivatives has the potential to help the Investment strategys in minimising the portfolio risk and/or improve the overall portfolio returns.

Interest Rate Futures and imperfect hedging

An Interest Rate Futures ('IRF') contract is "an agreement to buy or sell a debt instrument at a specified future date at a price that is fixed today." The underlying security for Interest Rate Futures is either Government Bond or T-Bill. Interest Rate Futures are Exchange traded and standardized contracts based on 6 year, 10 year and 13 year Government of India Security and 91-day Government of India Treasury Bill (91DTB). These future contracts are cash settled. These instruments can be used for hedging the underlying cash positions.

Numerical Example –

When the underlying asset being hedged and the IRF contract are based on the same instrument, the hedge is known as a perfect hedge.

Imperfect hedging is when the underlying asset being hedged and the IRF contract has a 90 day correlation of closing prices of more than 90%. If such a correlation does not exist at any time, the derivative position shall be counted as exposure. Maximum permissible imperfect hedging is 20%. For example, assume a portfolio comprising the following structure:

Security	Amount (crs)	Price (INR)
IGB 6.79% 2027	50	94.6
IGB 6.68% 2031	25	91
IGB 7.17% 2028	15	98
Cash	10
Total	100

Assuming the fund manager intends to hedge the portfolio using IRF and uses contracts on IGB 6.79% 2027 as it is most liquid. Maximum permissible imperfect hedging is 20%. For the above fund is $100 \times 20\% = \text{INR } 20 \text{ crores}$. Maximum perfect hedging using 6.79% 2027 is INR 50 crores. Total hedge the fund can enter into is INR 50 crores + INR 20 crores = INR 70 crores. Assuming the 90 day historical correlation between the instruments in the portfolio are as follows:

90 day historical correlation	IGB 6.79% 2027	IGB 6.68% 2031	IGB 7.17% 2028
IGB 6.79% 2027	1	0.95	0.85
IGB 6.68% 2031	0.95	1	0.80
IGB 7.17% 2028	0.85	0.80	1

Given that we are using IRF on 6.79% 2027, we can hedge 6.68% 2031 using IRFs as correlation is more than 90% upto INR 20 crores (based on the 20% limit of imperfect hedging). Since one contract of IRF has a notional value of INR 2 lakhs, in this example the fund manager may sell (INR 70 crores/2 lakhs) 3500 contracts, to hedge his position.

Scenario 1: When the bonds close higher than at the time the hedge was entered into:

Security	amt (cr)	Price before hedging (INR)	Price on maturity of hedge (INR)	Gain/Loss	Net Gain (INR lakhs)
IGB 6.79% 2027	50	94.6	94.7	0.1	5
IGB 6.68% 2031	25	91	91.15	0.15	3.75
IGB 7.17% 2028	15	98	98.05	0.05	0.75

Cash	10
Without IRF					9.5
IRF based on IGB 6.79% 2027	70	94.5	94.65	-0.15	-10.5
Total with IRF	100

Scenario 2: When the bonds close lower than at the time the hedge was entered into:

Security	Amount (crs)	Price before hedging (INR)	Price on maturity of hedge (INR)	Gain/Loss	Net Gain (INR lakhs)
IGB 6.79% 2027	50	94.6	94.5	-0.1	-5
IGB 6.68% 2031	25	92	91.85	-0.15	-3.75
IGB 7.17% 2028	15	100	99.95	-0.05	-0.75
Cash	10
Without IRF					-9.5
IRF based on IGB 6.79% 2027	70	98.5	98.45	0.05	3.5
Total with IRF	100

As can be seen in the cases above, IRFs help in reducing the volatility of the loss/gain to the fund in case of yield movements.

Please note these examples are hypothetical in nature and are given for illustration purposes only. The actual returns may vary depending on the market conditions.

The AMC retains the right to enter into such derivative transactions as may be permitted by the applicable regulations from time to time.

The Exchanges, however, in their own judgment, may prescribe limits lower than what is prescribed by SEBI by giving advance notice to the market under intimation to SEBI.

The Trustee may alter the above restrictions from time to time to the extent that changes in the Regulations may allow and as deemed fit in the general interest of the Unit Holders.

These investment restrictions shall be applicable at the time of investment and changes do not have to be effected merely because, owing to appreciations or depreciations in value, or by reason of the receipt of any rights, bonuses or benefits in the nature of capital or of any Investment strategy of arrangement or for amalgamation, reconstruction or exchange, or at any repayment or redemption or other reason outside the control of the Fund, any such limits would thereby be breached. If these limits are exceeded for reasons beyond its control, AMC shall as soon as possible take appropriate corrective action, taking into account the interests of the Unit holders.

In addition, certain investment parameters may be adopted internally by AMC, and amended from time to time, to ensure appropriate diversification / security for the Fund. The Trustee Company / AMC may alter these above stated limitations from time to time, and also to the extent the SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996 change, so as to permit the Investment strategies to make its investments in the full spectrum of permitted investments for Mutual Funds to achieve its investment objective. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (commonly known as “FATCA”):

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act is a United States (US) federal law, aimed at prevention of tax evasion by US Citizens and Residents (“US Persons”) through use of offshore accounts. The Government of India and the US have reached an agreement in substance on the terms of an Inter-Governmental Agreement (“IGA”) to implement the FATCA provisions, which have become globally applicable from July 1, 2014.

Edelweiss Asset Management Limited (“the AMC”) is classified as a FFI under the FATCA provisions, in which case the Fund / AMC is required, from time to time, to:

undertake necessary due diligence process by collecting information/documentary evidence of the US/non-US status of the investors; disclose/report information as far as may be legally permitted about the holdings/investment returns pertaining to reportable accounts to the US Internal Revenue Service and/or such Indian authorities as may be specified under FATCA or other applicable laws and carry out such other activities as prescribed under the FATCA provisions, as amended from time to time.

FATCA due diligence will have to be directed at each investor/unit holder (including joint investors) and on being identified as a reportable person/specified US person, all the folios will be reported. Further, in case of folio with joint investors, the entire account value of investment portfolio will be attributable under each such reportable person. Investors/Unit holders would therefore be required to furnish such information to the Fund/AMC, from time to time, in order to comply with the reporting requirements stated in the IGA and or circulars/guidelines issued by SEBI/AMFI in this regard.

The impact of FATCA is relevant not only at the point of on-boarding of the investors but also throughout the life cycle of the investor account / folio with the Fund. Hence investor(s) should immediately intimate the Fund/AMC, in case of any change in the FATCA related information provided by them at the time of initial subscription.

The AMC reserves the right to reject any application or compulsorily redeem the units held directly or beneficially in case the applicant/investor fails to furnish the relevant information and/or documentation or is found to be holding units in contravention of the FATCA provisions.

	Further, in accordance with the regulatory requirements relating to FATCA/CRS read along with SEBI Circular no. In case the information/declaration is not received from the investor on or before December 31, 2015, the account shall be treated as reportable account. Ultimate Beneficial Ownership: In accordance with SEBI Circular no. CIR/MIRSD/2/2013 dated January 24, 2013 and AMFI Best practices guidelines circular no. 62/2015-16 dated September 18, 2015, Investors may note the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With effect from November 1, 2015, it is mandatory for new investors to provide beneficial ownership details as part of account opening documentation failing which the AMC shall reject the application. • With effect from January 1, 2016 it is mandatory for existing investors/unit holders to provide beneficial ownership details, failing which the AMC may reject the transaction for additional subscription (including switches).
